Section III – Your Community Service

Starting with the activity to which you have contributed the most, attach a list of your volunteer commitments. Description should include: a) the nature of your services, b) how long you have been involved with the organization, c) an estimate of the hours you have contributed, and d) why this service is important to you. Please provide the name and phone number of your supervisor or other individual within each organization who is familiar with your work there.

Section IV – Other Commitments

Please list any other commitments you have, such as sports, music, family responsibilities, paid employment, clubs, etc.

Section V – Recommendation

We want to know more about your most significant volunteer activity. Please ask the supervisor or other individual (non-family) who is most familiar with your community service work to complete the recommendation form that follows this page. He or she is then to return the recommendation to you in a sealed envelope to be included with your application packet.

Section VI – High School Transcript

Please ask your high-school counselor to provide you with a current transcript of your grades to be included with your completed application.

Section VII – In your own words

On a separate page, please tell us what receiving a Landings Landlovers Community Service Merit Award would mean to you.
